Issue 4

Holidays 2007 Issue

How are we doing?

We are doing great!
We have the three machines now, almost 4,000 patterns to pick from,
Over 150 different thread choices,
65 bolts of wide back material, 8 choices in batting. We think we are doing great.

If you have not been around in a while you should check out our assortment of gifts for that quilter friend or treat yourself to a nice trinket.

The joint is hopping, but there is still time available to quilt those Christmas gifts. Call and setup your appointment today.

While Santa is taking a well deserved rest we decided we would too.

We will be closed from

December 23-January 1

We will open for business again on January 2, 2008.

Thanks Sue & Jeannette

New stuff on the Certified quilters site!

Second Anniversary

Our Two Year Anniversary is coming up and we are planning a fun week of activities to celebrate.
Mark your calendars for the week of February 12-17 and plan on stopping by.

We will have extended shop hours, snacks, door prizes, demos and our second

“Quilt Yourself Wall of Fame Quilt Show”.

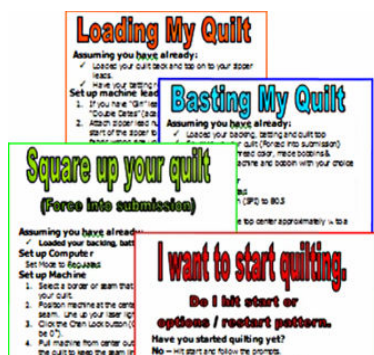

Extended Hours for celebration are 10am-8pm
Tuesday-Sunday

The Website

The Website has some new items in both the general public site and the special one for our machine rental clients. Check it out every now and then because sometimes we do get time to update and add stuff.

Our new Cheater sheets will help you use a step by step process to get your quilt done.
These step by step instructions and tips Will refresh your memory and help increase proficiency and self confidence on the longarm .

B**ch and Bind Wednesdays

Wednesday evenings 5:00-9:00. Our doors are open, our shoulders are broad and you are welcome to come and bind quilts, sew blocks or B**ch about whatever is on your mind or you can just come to visit. Please call ahead and warn let us know you are coming.

Quilts of Valor

Quilt Yourself is proud to be a drop off location for QOV donation quilt tops.

If you would like to make a QOV quilt for donation stop by our shop or go to www.qovf.org for details on requirements of donation quilts.

Quilting Honor & Comfort For Our Wounded

Talk to us about Volunteer quilting of QOV quilts.

Quilt a quilt for a wounded soldier for practice quilting.

No hourly fee for QOV practice quilting.

Ann Bright Monthly Pattern club

We are happily members of Ann's pattern club. Each month we receive new patterns from Ann. It is like Christmas every first of the month. We will post each months new patterns on the website.

Quilt Yourself Wall of Fame Quilt Show

During the week of our anniversary we will be hosting our second Quilt Yourself Wall of Fame Quilt Show. This quilt show is open to anyone, of any talent level and any age that has used Ethel, Lucy or Gracie to quilt any part of her/his quilt.

Your quilt needs to be completed (quilted and bound) to be entered into the show.

The show will be judged by any and all visitors we have in the shop during our anniversary week. Judges will be voting for their favorite quilt over all. No judging on skill level allowed. All Quilt Police will be escorted from the premises by force if necessary.

All quilts entered will receive a special prize and be eligible for four very prestigious awards.

If you would like to enter your quilt in the quilt show please have your quilt to Quilt Yourself by 2:00 pm Saturday February 9, 2008. Contact Jeannette or Sue for more information.

The goal of this show is to have fun, and share ideas about the types of quilting that can be done on Ethel, Lucy or Gracie. We hope to inspire you to try new things.
